

Lesson: Climate Action Lesson 2 of 2

ACTIVITY OUTLINE

Des trottinettes en libre service à Paris - multiple choice listening comprehension

Les solutions des enfants pour le climat – sentence match up task

Greta Thunberg, c'est qui déjà? – reading text and comprehension activity

5 bonnes nouvelles pour la planète- Brut video listening gap fill comprehension :

Resources:

Brut video: <https://www.brut.media/fr/economy/des-trottinettes-en-libre-service-a-paris-fe69e571-569f-4f95-afd5-49687f1165eb> plus comprehension questions slide

Match up activity to print or display on IWB

Greta Thunberg text and comprehension questions

Brut video: <https://www.brut.media/fr/international/5-bonnes-nouvelles-pour-la-planete-acada38d-f792-4160-8f5d-54e1d234a0b4>

CURRICULUM OUTCOMES

Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking Skills enhanced

Use of authentic resources

Read literary texts in the language (such as stories, poems, letters) to stimulate ideas, develop creative expression and expand understanding of the language and culture

Lesson: Climate Action Lesson 2 of 2

GLOBAL LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students can explain the significance of the threat that climate change poses to life-forms on earth

CLIMATE
ACTION

Students can explain that human actions such as burning fossil fuels are causing today's climate change

Students can describe practical things people can do, individually or collectively, to reduce greenhouse gas emissions

SMSC: Ability to be reflective about their own beliefs and perspective on life

Investigating and offering reasoned views about moral and ethical issues

British Values: Mutual respect and tolerance of different beliefs, individual liberty

Action

Solar for schools

How can your school play it's part in reducing CO2 emissions? One way is to work with Solar for Schools to produce renewable energy, at no cost to the school.

Find out more on their website

<https://www.solarforschools.co.uk/>

The project has been funded with support from the European Commission. The contents of this publication are the sole responsibility of Leeds DEC and do not necessarily reflect the opinion of the European Union.